THE FROZEN FLEET

These cover photos show the plight of the fishing fleet last Thursday as the New Bedford harbor yielded to the deep freeze the area was experiencing. Top photo was taken at Union Wharf, Fairhaven, and bottom photo at Hathaway Braley wharf, Fairhaven. While the harbor, outside the wharves, was kept broken, the unmarked sheet of ice around these boats showed clearly that they were going nowhere.

It has been quite a while since a prolonged zero degrees and below cold spell has had a chance to work on local waters so the novelty of ice as far as the eye can see is rare. On Wednesday, Marion harbor was completely covered with ice as was New Bedford harbor (possibly because the dike is keeping the water still) but Mattapoisett harbor was iced only to the center. Thursday, the ice finally covered all of Mattapoisett harbor. With the ice so new, Mattapoisett patrolman Eddie Cacilhas ran out on Mattapoisett Wharf and called by loudspeaker to 3 children who had skated from Goodspeed Island to the very center of the harbor. Salt water ice is treacherous at best and the ice at the point where the children skated had been open water 12 hours before. The children did hear the loudspeaker and returned to shore without incident and probably with no idea of the great danger of their venture out to the harbor's center. As long as the ice lasts it is being worked by the tide and salt pockets

An Open Letter

OPEN LETTER TO THE BOARD OF SELECTMEN
MARION, MASSACHUSETTS
SUBJECT: TOWN INSURANCE

Thank you for your prompt reply to my open letter addressed to you in regards to the subject matter.

Your answer was most naive, to say the least, and certainly was lacking of any real punch-line.

Incidentally, your Marion fire rate, as quoted, was incorrect.

You would have our readers believing that the low premium cost of the Mattapoisett insurance was due to their filing a schedule of high values on their buildings and contents, in order to procure a reduced rate.

Nothing can be farther from the truth. If so, why does not Marion do the same and cut their premium cost?

Marion does not have a schedule of values, at least our "Broker of Record", so-called, gave me to so understand when I requested one. In his reply to my letter dated November 13, 1967, he advised that Marion is insured on a blanket value of $975,000.00. How stupid, or rather, who is?

The real reason for the difference between the insurance cost of the towns of Marion and Mattapoisett is found in the following:

Bids for Mattapoisett insurance to cover Fire, Lightning, Extended Coverage, Vandalism and Malicious Mischief, as opened and read on November 28th, showed that two bids submitted for this coverage varied from $3,100.00 to $4,000.00, or a difference of $900.00 between the low and high bids.

Three bids submitted on the Comprehensive Liability Insurance varied from $1,100.00 to $1,600.00, or a difference of $500.00 between the low and high bids.

Five bids which were submitted on the Public and Institutional Property Plan, (known as PIP), varied from $4,100.00 to $5,000.00 or a $900.00 difference between the low and high bids.

In spite of sub zero temperatures, hospitality was warm at the home of Mrs. David Goodenough for the Museum Crowd's visit to Paris and The Louvre last Wednesday morning, January 10th. Mrs. Albert D. Furnans' showing of slides of the Louvre with Vincent Price taped commentary on over thirty famous paintings fascinated the 15 members of the Fine Arts Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club present, among whom was Mrs. Luen M. Johnson, first vice-president.

A delightful surprise feature preceded the announced program, namely color views of

On the weekend of January 19 and 20, nine Old Rochester Regional High School students will participate in the Southeastern Massachusetts District Concert Festival. This is a concert performed by outstanding music students from Southeastern Massachusetts schools.

Students wishing to participate in this concert must first audition as only the best students are accepted. Those accepted from Old Rochester are: Jo Wright, Sue Maxwell, William Sylvia, David Sullivan, Christine Glaeser and Ward Abronski, for the chorus, and Susan Roylance and Susan Whalen for the orchestra. George Fisher will be the accompanist for the chorus. This concert will be held at Lawrence High School, in Falmouth, on January 20, at 2:00 P.M.

INSTRUCTORS AT ART CENTER

The Marion Art Center announces the instructors for the winter session of the Studio Art classes in Marion. These classes are open to anyone with a desire to draw or paint. Applications are still being accepted.

Sarah Brown, in charge of the Tuesday morning class, has an A.B. from DePauw University in Indiana and studied at the Fontainebleau School of Fine Arts in France. She has shown competitively in Indiana and in Massachusetts in the "Young Talent Show of 1967". She has had several "one man" shows. Her class will explore the various art forms - oils, acrylic, watercolor and col-

Ellen Marie Francis attended Swain School of Design and studied under Peter Busa and Melvin and Joyce Zabaski. She also attended the University of Nevada Art School. She has received many prizes in art shows in Massachusetts for her graphic art, and her work is on display in several galleries. Miss Francis' class will study drawing, silk screen and block print design, and meets Wednesday evening from 7:30-10:00 P.M. in the studio. Also, a Thursday evening class will be held in the studio, starting January 18th, from 7:30-10 P.M.

Mr. Tyce Marshall, art director of Creative Advertising Associates, will be the instructor for the Thursday evening class. He graduated from the Swain School of Design and attended Southeastern Massachusetts Technological Institute for graduate study. He has exhibited in many galleries in this area. Instruction will be given in oils, watercolor, encaustics, egg tempera, silverpoint and the graphic arts with wood cuts and etchings.

These classes are one of the many services that the Marion Art Center offers to the public. In addition to the exhibition of the works of well-known artists each month except February, there is an excellent art lending service.

Special lectures and theater are offered throughout the year. The Marion Art Center is a non-profit organization and all of these services are available to the general public of this area. Membership is invited and open to all.

If you wish only to paint without specific instruction come join a class and enjoy congenial association and expert criticism.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

It is my hope that the readers of Presto Press who are distressed at the increasing escalation of the war in Viet Nam, realize they will have an opportunity to speak out at the April 30th Democratic presidential preferential primary, whether they are registered Democrats, Independents or registered Republicans. Any registered Republican may vote in the Democratic primary provided he or she goes to the Registrar of Voters more than 30 days before the presidential preferential primary and changes his registration to that of Democrat or Independent. After the primary, he may change back to the Republican party. Thus, if he wishes to place Mr. McCarthy on the ballot at the Democratic National Conven-

March of Dimes

"You open the envelope and moan. Another appeal. Isn't it ever going to end? I can assure you it won't end until the fight is won.

"The fight we of the March of Dimes are waging is the battle against birth defects. Please be generous for the need is urgent. We hope to exceed last year's local total," Mrs. Sumner M. Brown said while announcing the traditional March of Dimes mail campaign in Mattapoisett.

During its 30th anniversary drive, the national foundation - March of Dimes hopes to raise funds to improve the level of medical care and to finance research programs into the causes of birth defects.

There are more than 1,000 different birth defects known today. Many are caused by heredity. Others are caused by such factors as infectious disease, drugs and radiation.

"A child born with a birth defect is costly to the community. Just one of these infants living a normal life span may cost the community many thousands of dollars, plus untold physical and emotional suffering. Many of these children can now be treated at the nearly 100 March of Dimes supported birth defects treatment centers throughout the country. A relatively small contribution from you can help rehabilitate a child to a useful life. Please keep this in mind before you moan again about another appeal," Mrs. Brown said.

"Why Kindergartens"

Is the primary function of either a private or a public kindergarten to serve as a baby-sitting service to soothe the frazzled nerves of mothers of 5-year old children? Is the primary function of kindergarten to "get a jump" on first grade so the children will meet familiar experiences on entering school? Is the job of the kindergarten to socialize the child, i.e. to provide play experiences where children learn to get along with each other and with their teacher? Perhaps the reason for kindergarten is to teach 5-year olds basic number concepts, to identify letters and numbers and colors, and even to read. Probably the role of either a public or private kindergarten is a bit of each of these and a good deal more.

Dr. Joseph Kunces, superintendent of schools for the Old Rochester Regional School District, will answer the question "Why Kindergarten?" as a public meeting on Wednesday, January 24th, at St. Gabriel's Church, Marion. The meeting is sponsored by the Loft School of Marion.

YWCA NEWS

On January 19, Miss Ida F. Pementa of Peabody will be guest speaker for the YWCA Travel Club. Prospective members are cordially invited. Miss Pementa's subject, "Portuguese East Africa," will be illustrated with slides taken in Mozambique. Also, there will be additional slides shown of Angola. Miss Pementa has been active in Portuguese affairs since 1960, and has been primarily interested in helping new Portuguese immigrants who have settled in her own town of Peabody, as well as in Cambridge, Fall River and New Bedford. Miss Pementa has promoted hospitality programs for foreign students as a member of the International Relations Committee.

Ned's Point rocks break through the sheet as the tide lowers the ice which covered all of the harbor and as far as you could see on the bay.

Time of the lecture is 8 P.M. in the Blue Room.

A standard American Red Cross First Aid Course will be given at the YWCA on Mondays from 7-9 P.M., starting January 29, and concluding March 4, with the final examination given that evening. The class is co-ed, open to anyone over 16 years of age.

The course is offered for those considering positions as camp counselors, life guards, water safety instructors, and placement where a first aid certificate is required by the New Bedford Chapter of the American Red Cross. Registrations for the course and inquiries may be made at the YWCA or at the Chapter House at 52 Ash Street, New Bedford. Mrs. Genevieve Townley, first aid instructor, will be in charge.

"Potpourri," a new combination plan of activity, is offered to women of all ages on Mondays. From 9-10 A.M. the gymnasium is open for badminton, ping pong, volleyball and basketball, without instruction. From 10-11, the pool is open for instruction in synchronized stroke perfecting, and life saving techniques. Both programs continue for ten weeks, and may be taken together, or separately. The YWCA will welcome inquiries and give full information.

There are vacancies in the judo-karate class that meets on Mondays at 6:30 P.M. Registration is open to girls 14 and over. Parent's permission in writing is required for class membership. Call for further information. Mr. Alden Blake is instructor.

Mrs. Grace Young, director USO program, will be pleased to discuss with young women 18-25 years of age, the interesting and community-minded activities that can be shared by high school graduates, junior career girls, and college students. Fun, fellowship and service are offered in the program, planned for meeting new friends and providing social and recreational projects for others. The winter program is now being set up, and new members will find the plans exciting. Mrs. Young is at the YWCA, available for calls.

NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING

A meeting of the Mattapoisett Neighborhood of Girl Scouts will be held Thursday morning, January 18th, at 9:30 A.M. in the Fellowship Room of the Congregational Church. This meeting is open to all registered adults including leaders and troop committee members of Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes and Seniors. Because there are items on the agenda affecting all levels of Scouting, a good attendance is urged. Coffee will be served preceding the meeting.

How to reduce oil heat costs

OUR COMPREHENSIVE BURNER SERVICE CONTRACT helps guard you against heating worries. And it can lower heating costs these three important ways:

1. By making sure your burner is cleaned and adjusted for peak efficiency—to help give you maximum heat from every gallon of fuel.

2. By catching little troubles before they can become big ones. A small adjustment or repair now may save you many dollars later on.

3. By insuring you against unexpected repair bills. This makes sure you always get heat.

For complete details about our burner service contracts, call us today.
